To all the Members of the Societas Iranologica Europaea

6th Europaeen Conference of Iranian Studies; Vienna, September 19–22, 2007; Call for papers

Berlin, May 3, 2006

Dear Colleagues,

The President and the Board of the Societas Iranologica Europaea have the pleasure to invite you to the 6th Conference of Iranian Studies to be held in Vienna from Wednesday, Sept. 19 to Saturday, Sept. 22, 2007 at the Austrian Academy of Sciences (Österreichische Akademie der Wissenschaften). We would appreciate your participation and the contribution of a paper. If you decide to present a paper, please send the provisional title with an abstract not exceeding half a page (1500 characters) by March 1, 2007 to the organizing committee to the following address:

ECIS 6
Postfach 75
A-1040 Wien
Österreich

or

ECIS 6
post-box 75
A-1040 Vienna
Austria

I would like to remind you that on the occasion of the 6th conference also two other important events will take place:

1. The General Assembly of the Societas Iranologica Europaea will elect a new Board. You will be informed on the agenda of the Assembly in due time and a list of candidates proposed by the old Board will also be sent to you.
2. The Europaeen Award for Iranian Studies (2000 Euros) will be given for the best dissertation written at an Europaeen University or for an outstanding book in an European language and published in Europe (see my letter of May 24, 2004 on our website). Applicants should be under 35 years of age and send their applications with a copy of the book or manuscript by March 30, 2007 to the following address:

Dr. Claus v. Pedersen
Snorresgade 17–19
D-2300 Copenhagen S
Denmark

Relevant information and fresh news on the ECIS 6 will be found on the homepage of the Societas and that of the Institute of Iranian Studies of the Austrian Academy of Sciences (www.oeaw.ac.at/iran).

Hoping to have you among the participants of this event,

Yours sincerely,
